ELLEN JONG was awarded as a Surface Magazine avantgardian in 2002. Shooting for magazines and advertising agencies became frequent. In 2005 powerHouse Books picked up her first monograph of fine art photographs, pees on earth, that Jong was inspired to focus more on other fine art photography projects. She self published her second photography monograph Getting to Know My Husband's Cock in 2010. Jong's work also manifests in video, light and mixed media installation.

MAELLE ANDRE is a fashion photographer from Belgium, and studied graphic design before photography. Her clients vary, but the fashion and beauty industry is her favorite. Recently she's started working as a music video maker. Her work is colorful and constantly changing. She's passionate about life as well as her job, and she always does what she wants to do, never regretting anything. Things that make her day: her french bulldog, a caramel macchiato, friends and post-rock music.

EVA KOLENKO Advertising and editorial photographer Eva Kolenko enjoys a life in constant motion, bouncing between San Francisco and LA. In addition to shooting for a diverse collection of clients, she insists on continually shooting personal work to keep the imagery fresh and the love affair alive. When she isn't shooting, you will most likely find her immersed in water, spooning with her pit bull Bub, pretending to be a foodie, or riding her moto through the country side.
